

His disbursements and charges in building the New House from June 2nd. to Sept. 27th.

June 2nd. He paid for the carriage of 40 loads of clay from the pitt in Bulfield in Redmoor ...	s. d.	18	0
He paid for two loads of straw to mingle with it for batts ...		12	0
June 15th. He paid for the carriage of 21 loads of clay from the pitt to the house ...		1	1 0
He paid to Jonathan Stockbridge for the 61 loads of clay from his pitt at 3d. for the load... ..		15	3
He paid for the carriage of clay-batts from Redmoor to the house ...		1	15 9
He paid for 40 bushels of lime and carriage from Royston ...		1	0 0
He paid for the digging of eight loads of sand ... ..		2	8
He paid Jon. Stockbridge for a parcel of bricks, with ye carriage ...		1	19 6
He paid to Mr. Brown, of Barkway, for 3,250 bricks at the rate of 16s. the thousand ... ..		2	12 2
He paid for the carriage of those bricks from Barkway ... ..		2	0 0
He paid for 2 bushels of coles to dry and harden the oven ... ..		1	8
He paid to Timothy Bonnet, the mason, for his worke ... ..		8	9 8
The charge of the body of the house was £21 7s. 8½d.
He paid for 47¾ foot of timber for the house at 1s. per foot ... ..		2	7 9
He paid for carriage of that timber 1s., for four pieces of wood for the crown pieces 8d., for wood for the glass bars 6d. ... ..		2	2
He paid for three-and-a-half deal boards at Cambridge ... ..		4	11
He paid for 8¾ pounds of nails for carpenter's worke... ..		3	0½
He paid George Kefford, junior, for his carpenter's worke to make the roof and doors and other things ... ..		1	3 0
The charge of the material and carpenter's work was £4 0s. 10½d.
He paid for ten bundles of reeds at Cambridge ... ..		7	6
He paid for carriage of reeds and deal boards... ..		4	0
He paid for five hundred and an half of splints ... ..		8	6

He paid for half-a-thousand and three hundred of fourpenny nails ... ..	1	8½
He paid for eight hundred spitts for the thatch ... ..	2	0
He paid for five loads of straw for the thatch ... ..	1	5 0
He paid Thomas Koe, the thatcher, for his worke ... ..	1	6 0
The charge of these materials and thatching	£3	14s. 8½d.

He paid to the Smith for mending the iron of the house ... ..	1	0
He paid for glassing the window 6s., for a lock 8d. ... ..	6	8
He paid for removing the rubbish of the old house ... ..	4	0
He paid or accounted as due for use of ladders, ropes, boards, wheelbarrow, mortar boards, and other things of his which were employed and used by the workemen ... ..	4	0

The whole charge of that new building
£29 18s. 11½d.

The reeds were used as a foundation on which to lay the plaster inside. "Fourpenny" nails were originally 4d. a hundred. A few years later a new boarded floor cost £5 11s. 1½d., and an outside oven £1 5s. 2d. This account relates to the tenement yet existing, but in later times the clay batts have had a coating of brickwork outside.

In 1723 Addleston conveyed the property to the Overseers in trust for the poor and received £25 for it. It was copyhold of the Shene Manor, quit rent 1s. 6d. Seven shillings was paid for a copy of John Addleston's will, and other legal expenses came to £1 8s. 1d.

In October, 1724, James died. There are no funeral expenses charged in the parish accounts, these came out of the £25.

	£	s.	d.
The Overseers had paid to J.A. in relief ... ..	22	15	10
The Overseers had paid for the cottage and law expenses ... ..	26	8	1
Rebuilding had cost ... ..	36	15	3
Total cost ... ..	85	19	2